Activity 6

Listen to your teacher reading the following expressions. Repeat after her/him.

Hopes/Wishes/Prayers	Congratulating/Complimenting
• I hope everything is/will be alright. • Good luck with your test. • Have a nice day. • Have a great trip.	• Congratulations on being elected as model student. • Congratulations on being elected as the best student. • Well done. • You did it. • I'm proud of you.

Activity 4

Pay attention to the pictures below. These cards and letters are used to express congratulations and wishes to another person.

Activity 5

Work in pairs and discuss the pictures in Activity 4.

1. What are the functions of those cards and letters?
2. In which situations do people usually use the cards and letters?

Activity 6

Listen to your teacher reading the following expressions. Repeat after her/him.

Hopes/Wishes/Prayers	Congratulating/Complimenting
• I hope everything is/will be alright. • Good luck with your test. • Have a nice day. • Have a great trip.	• Congratulations on being elected as model student. • Congratulations on being elected as the best student. • Well done. • You did it. • I'm proud of you.

Activity 7

Match the following expressions with their responses.

1. I will join the X-factor audition next week.

2. Congratulations on being the winner in the storytelling competition.

a. Thank you.

b. Wow. I hope you can impress the judges.

Activity 8

Respond to the following statements using the expressions you have learnt earlier.

1. Look! I got an A for my drawing.

_____

_____

2. It's late and Nita has not got home yet. I'm worried.

_____

_____

3. I'm launching my new novel next month.

_____

_____

4. Look! Finally, the rose I've planted is blossoming.

_____

7. We're moving to another city next year.

_____

8. I'm going to have my final test next week.

_____

9. Listen! I got the third position in this year's singing contest for junior high school students.

_____