DESCRIBING OBJECTS AND THINGS

Chapter 4

MY LAPTOP

My Laptop

My laptop is made of metal and plastic. It is silver and thin with a bright screen. The keyboard is soft and easy to use. I often use it for study and entertainment.

BICYCLE

I have a bicycle with a red frame. It is made of steel and has two big wheels. The seat is soft, and the pedals move smoothly. I ride it every morning before school.

How To Describe An Object

N
W E
S

THE ORDER OF ADJECTIVES

No	Kategori	Penjelasan	Contoh Kata
0	Determiner	Kata penentu (selalu di awal)	a, an, the, some, two, her
1	Opinion	Pendapat atau penilaian	beautiful, ugly, smart, expensive
2	Size	Ukuran	big, tiny, tall, short, huge
3	Age	Usia atau umur	old, young, new, ancient, modern
4	Shape	Bentuk	round, square, flat, oval
5	Color	Warna	red, bluish, black, dark green
6	Origin	Asal atau kewarganegaraan	Indonesian, Italian, Japanese, lunar
7	Material	Bahan pembuat	wooden, plastic, metal, cotton, gold
8	Purpose	Tujuan atau kegunaan	sleeping (bag), racing (car), cooking (pot)

SHAPES square circle triangle cross pentagon rectangle heart star crescent trapezium ellipse arrow

Size gigantic jumbo big short teeny-tiny enormous small huge little massive tall petite scrawny high miniature fat puny thin immense mammoth

KINDS OF MATERIAL

WOODEN

METAL

COTTON

GOLD

PLASTIC

RUBBER

LEATHER

STONE

DESCRIBING THINGS

When you describe something, you give information or traits about a person, place, thing, or event. the goal is to help give a clear picture or idea of what is being talked about. It includes giving specific details about things like size, shape, color, texture, and anything else that is important. In English, it is called an adjective phrase.

1. Black shoes

2. A Round ball

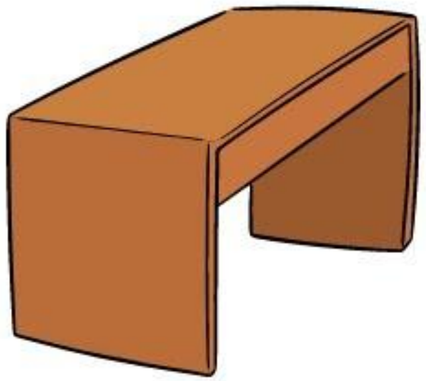
3. A Thick book

4. A Plastic bottle

The pattern is like this: Definite article + The thing + To be + Adjective

Now, let see them in sentences.

- The flag is red.
- The tree is short.
- The table is long.
- The mirror is oval.
- The three students are smart.
- The job is great.
- The bag is paper.



Desk

Chair

Books

Pencil Box

Bagpack

Scissors

Notebook

Clips

A. Listening and Speaking

SCAN

Task 1 Listen to the audio and then answer the questions based on what you heard.

Gilang : Hi, Reza. What are you looking for?

Reza : Hi, Gilang. I am looking for the drawing book that my father bought for me at the bookstore.

Gilang : What does it look like?

Reza : The cover is red. There is a small rectangle in the right corner. I put my name on it. I think I wrote it big enough to see.

Gilang : Look, isn't that yours?

Reza : Yes, that's mine. How did it get here, in Upik's drawer?

Gilang : You can ask her later. You have a nice drawing book, Reza. I like it.

Reza : Thank you, Gilang. OK, let's finish Mr. Ashar's drawing assignment.

Gilang : OK.

TERIMA KASIH

Language Focus

How to Use 'Could You ... ' and 'Can You ... '

'Could you ... ' and 'Can you ... ' are both used in expressions of asking for something and requesting someone to do something. The phrase 'could you ... ' is more polite than 'can you ... '. They are used in different situations; formal and informal. Look at the table below for more information.

Could you ...

'Could you ... ' is used to ask for something or request someone to do something in a more polite way or formal situation. For examples:

a. Could you give me the result of your test tomorrow?
b. Could you explain the lesson for me?
c. Could you send me the letter, please?

Can you ...

'Can you ... ' is used to ask for something or request someone to do something in casual context or informal situation. For examples:

a. Can you close the door, please?
b. Can you fix my bicycle?
c. Can you lend me your book for a while?